

We all need someone we can Relate to...

Coco Moon is delighted to announce Relate Northumberland & Tyneside as our sponsored charity.

Relate Northumberland & Tyneside is a local independent charity which aims to offer relationship advice and counselling to any individual whether they are single or in a relationship.

As the UK's largest provider of relationship counselling Relate strives to offer a number of services focussing on creating and maintaining successful relationships. All sorts of people come to Relate and find it helps them to understand what's going on in their current or past relationships and discover ways to change things for the better.

With a number of dedicated and highly experienced staff, Relate N& T aims:

- To enhance the quality of couple, parental and family relationships.
- To help relationships and marriages withstand the pressure leading to breakdown.
- To limit the damage which commonly accompanies failing relationships, separation and divorce and increase the prospect of subsequent relationships succeeding.

Working closely with Relate N&T, Coco Moon is pleased to be able to offer not only our time but our expertise to this worthwhile organisation. As a registered Charity, Relate N&T is committed to offering its services to the whole community whatever their financial situation. No one is turned away on the basis of their ability to pay and the services they can access are not affected by the amount a person is able to contribute to the cost. Relate N&T raises the funding needed to subsidise services in a number of ways:

- 7 Charity shops across the region
- Donations from clients
- Charitable Trusts
- Local Authority Grants

All money raised for and by Relate N&T goes straight into subsidising the services provided for those who may need help but can't afford it. Coco Moon hopes that all our members will support Relate N&T alongside us, whether that's donating clothing to one of their charity shops or attending one of our future fundraising events. Coco Moon is incredibly proud to be working collectively with Relate N&T and will strive to promote and support our local charity at every opportunity.
